

A GENEROUS LIFE: THE BEAUTY OF GIVING

Living as a Faithful Steward

Matthew 25:14-30

What should we do with what we are given?

A Generous LIFE

What should we do with what we are given

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

- The master trusts his servants
- The master gives each servant what he can handle

What should we do with what we are given

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

THREE SERVANTS, TWO OUTCOMES

- The first two servants double the investment
- The third servant preserves what he is given

What should we do with what we are given

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

THREE SERVANTS, TWO OUTCOMES

WELL DONE

- The first two servants return gains on the investment
- The master praises each servant

What should we do with what we are given

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

THREE SERVANTS, TWO OUTCOMES

THE FEARFUL SERVANT

- The servant is driven by fear
- He returns only what was given to him

What should we do with what we are given

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

THREE SERVANTS, TWO OUTCOMES

THE FEARFUL SERVANT

REBUKE FOR LAZINESS

-The servant is rebuked not praised

-What he had was taken away

What should we do with what we are given?

THE MASTER INVESTS IN HIS SERVANTS

THREE SERVANTS, TWO OUTCOMES

THE FEARFUL SERVANT

REBUKE FOR LAZINESS

God desires us to be faithful with what He has given to us.
